If there is a network of restaurants in the world that always triumphs, it is undoubtedly McDonald's. No matter what country you are in, you will always find a local of the brand near you to offer you its products and guarantee the best prices. Now being able to enjoy all its advantages will be much easier, with the company's free application.

This fast food franchise has been accompanying all its consumers since 1940, adding more than 80 years of history behind it, and managing not only to offer food, but also to create its own style and create unique consumer experiences. McDonald's has known how to adapt to the times and with each new change that has occurred, they have always been the first to offer the best version of themselves to keep up. With the implementation of games and mobile applications it was not going to be less, and they already have their own app in which you will have your favorite restaurant no matter where you are, or when you want to enjoy your Big Mac menu, with a Just by clicking you can buy all the products you want and always at the best price, with endless special discounts for users.

With more than 35,000 physical restaurants and more than 68 million customers a day, with this free application you will be able to have your products close to you. Using the geolocation of your mobile phone, it will always show you those restaurants that are close to you so that you can benefit from the exclusive offers it has. For them, the customer always comes first, that is why they have a commitment to each of the people who trust them to order their favorite food.

Download McDonald's for free, you find it available for Android and iOS devices.

Its maximum objective is that its users continue to save, that is why from the app they always find their products at unbeatable prices, so you can get your favorite McDonald's food but at a better price. Because if until now you thought that a Quarter Pound menu was already cheap, now it is even more so. There is always an offer that you can take advantage of and continue saving, just by clicking on the ones that appear personalized in the application you can benefit from them, that easy.

It also has temporary events with which to continue saving, such as in the McNific month, in which every day you will find exclusive discounts with which a product from its menu will be offered every day at a laughable price, such as hamburgers for one euro and so on. which will make its millions of users are pending daily to be able to enjoy the offer that touches on that date. Do not miss the opportunity and get the best prices from McDonald 's.

To start taking advantage of these discounts is as easy as installing the McDonald 's application on your mobile device. It is the only thing you will have to do, once you have it, all the offers that they have active at the moment will appear on their home screen and to be able to opt for it you just have to click on the one you want. Each one of them comes with its own conditions of use, so we recommend reading them before so as not to be surprised.

When you've selected one, turn it on so you can use it. Once you have done it, a countdown will appear with the time you have left to be able to exchange it for the products that they include. Normally it is 15 minutes, so you have to be very fast and not accumulate many at the same time if you are not going to be able to place the order in the time required.

But not only will you have special offers at your disposal, one of the advantages of McDonald's is that you also have the possibility of placing an order without leaving the app itself, linking with the McDelivery option, who takes it home so you don't have to move from your sofa. With this app you will always be the first to find out about everything the hamburger franchise has to offer, with its notification system you will be informed in detail of all the offers that are activated around you.
