Meet this multiplayer game where you will have to shape their world with the pieces of different sizes that you come across, in the purest Lego style but with video games. Not all are the same, Roblox is the base that will help you start making your own creations that, unlike other titles, are different games in which you will decide your goals and mechanics.

With Roblox you will have the feeling of playing many types of games within yourself. You will be able to share yours with the rest of the users, inviting them to try them, and even participate in the ones they have built. With more than 100 million active players, download Roblox for free, you find it available for Android and iOS and for other devices such as PC, Mac or Xbox One.

You will have total control, you will not only create a scenario, you will also decide all the differentiating aspects of the game. Within its great universe you can find different worlds that have a similar theme, such as those that are full of puzzles and mazes or those of survival.

Roblox is completely free, although it has a virtual currency and micro-payments system within the application so that you can buy other elements that help you customize your creation, such as clothes for your characters or new blocks with which to continue building.

It is a platform in which millions of people around the world come together every day to open their minds and continue creating from their imagination, but above all to share these experiences with the rest and try games that have been created by people like you. It is a tool to create your own game and that can be known by other players.

One of its characteristics is that all the games that you will find on Roblox are created by users, there is no trace of their developers, so you are sure that it has been a normal person who has created that title that you liked so much. Create everything you can imagine and build fantastic worlds where you can meet your friends and have fun.
