✓ Pros

- Your children's creativity will improve - They have exceptional creativity when creating music videos on TikTok. Usually, they do it to get the maximum number of followers musically for their profile.
- They will commit to this, and therefore we do not have to pay attention to them.
- Who knows if they are going to be the next Justin Bieber or Shakira? If that happens, we'll get some fame, too, right? Therefore, it is good to support and motivate them if you believe in their skills and creativity.
- They are always happy - They love TikTok because it entertains and amuses them. Therefore, we should not withdraw it completely in one day suddenly. That will surely bring negative results.

✗ Cons

- They will avoid food, and we will have to force them to eat it all the time. It is not possible if you are going through a busy life.
- They will not worry about their studies
- The energy bill will skyrocket - Yes, your kids will abuse their devices to use TikTok, and that will increase the energy bill to a hectic level.
- You cannot get their presence because they are always busy creating videos for their music page.

Tips

1. Create or already use hashtags for your video bomb even more, as it functions as a Facebook hashtag, for example, in that you add "#" your videos to a wider range. But that sets apart that this app works as a challenge, in which you pay attention to your version of the music and dance being challenged.
2. Be creative in choosing the effects. Or application offers you a variety of options to edit your video leaving you more optimized, more or differential of your creativity.
