One of the activities that the development of mobile technology facilitated for people in their day-to-day lives is making payments and transfers. There are a large number of free apps available to assist in the management, organization and control of people's finances.

If you are looking for an application that is easy to use and simplifies a good part of the economic activities of your day, you should not miss the opportunity to download Caixa for free. The program is part of the tools granted by the Caixa Econômica Federal in Brazil to simplify a series of procedures related to public plans and projects in which a large number of citizens participate.

Using Caixa enables you to review account balances, obtain statements, carry out transfers, recharge the mobile phone line or make deposits. You can also make payments with Caixa online. Security is one of the most and best worked aspects since you can log in using biometric data.

If you receive paper tickets with barcodes, you can also make the payment since the program has an integrated reader of this type of images. The same if you need to make a judicial deposit, you can do it from Caixa.

Another advantage of the financial tool is that you can invest with Caixa online. Make a small investment of your savings and receive benefits and percentages to make future profits.

If you have a credit card, the application allows you to manage all your expenses, income and balances in detail. It is very important that you carry out a control of this type of transfers since many times the limits can be exceeded without one noticing.

Unify all your movements and expenses at Caixa. One of the most effective and useful app that can be downloaded for free on Android or iOS. With just a few small configurations you can keep control of everything that happens around your personal finances. Pay, transfer, invest, save or receive payments in one place.

✓ Pros

- You can control all your expenses easily
- If you need a card immediately you have an urgent service

✗ Cons

- It works only with internet connection.
- Sometimes it is slow.

- Available 24 hours a day
- You can personalize each expense with your own labels
- They pay little interest for your money.
- Poor telephone service.
