Get rewards with your purchases, in an easy and fun way you can get bonuses in many brands with each of your purchases. This is what Fetch Rewards promises, the online platform that millions of people around the world use to earn extra while they continue shopping.

More than 500 million scanned receipts have already been registered in its database, these are converted into points and these in turn into rewards. What are you waiting for to join this revolution? Download Fetch Rewards for free, you find it available in the main virtual stores, Google Play Store and App Store, compatible with Android and iOS operating systems.

In addition to getting points for each of the receipts you add, you will have exclusive discounts on thousands of products that you will find within the app, some of which are from recognized brands around the world.

To start benefiting from all its advantages, you just have to start taking photos of all your purchase tickets and add it to your Fetch Rewards account, that easy and fast. It will be used for all kinds of products in any store, literally. Every time you buy one of the ones that will appear in the app, you will receive your money back.

Not only does it accept receipts from supermarkets, you can also add from restaurants, local stores, gas stations, pharmacies, pet stores and a long etcetera, so it is very important to always have it at hand. If at the moment you receive the ticket you cannot scan it, don't worry, the application gives you a margin of up to 14 days after the issue date to be able to do so.

Each of the brands will have their own list of products with which you can earn bonuses, the more receipts you scan, the more chances there are to keep saving. Fetch Rewards returns your money automatically, without any kind of intermediary. You can also exchange your points for gift cards in certain businesses, discover special offers and promotions that will make you earn more points quickly.

Go further, with the Fetch Rewards application you will also have the possibility to make a shopping list so you do not forget anything, control your shopping budget or even get inspired for future meals in its digital recipe box. In this way you will have all the purchase history you have made, controlling your expenses.
