Social media provides a wealth of opportunities and options. Each of these virtual platforms have their fans, followers and types of users. It is not the same that a site that gives priority to the quality of the images, that the one that focuses on video games or the one that encourages users to make, record and watch videos online for free. Before becoming the successful TikTok, there was a free app called musical.ly and we are going to tell you why you should download it.

Although today it has another name, all the advantages of musical.ly are present in its new form. First and foremost you can download musical.ly for free and use it on mobile phones that have Android or iOS operating systems. It is a social network mainly for videos and it will give you the possibility of exploiting all your creativity.

Using musical.ly is very easy and you will be able to make the most fun, extravagant and original audiovisual productions. The app has a series of tools with which you can create short videos to which all kinds of effects can be added. From alterations in their playback speed to adding songs to make them more funny and entertaining.

Navigating the interface of the social network is very easy and you can choose from the top of the most used themes to make your recording. If you are successful, your material will be seen by millions and millions of people in just a matter of seconds.

So that you don't get bored, the effects that are added to the platform change regularly. You will have at your disposal stickers, emojis, legends, fonts and the best sound effects so that your imagination does not stop flying when it comes to sharing free videos online.

The phenomenon of musical.ly today becomes one of the most used sites on the internet and one of the most downloaded apps. Its phenomenon does not stop and is supported by a platform that is easy to use, intuitive and, above all, fun. All people, of any age, can spend hours laughing at other users' videos or creating them themselves.
