Satellite radios are a great success in the United States and a clear example is SiriusXM, which has managed to create a platform where you can listen to the stations you want. Its popularity is such that it already has its own mobile version, with which you can always carry your favorite radio programs with you, no matter where or when. Download SiriusXM for free, you find it available for Android and iOS devices.

The improvement of the sound quality of the local stations has made millions of fans of this type of entertainment program, making it unnecessary to have our full attention and making it a highly consumed audio product. SiriusXM has more than 20 years of history, with a very well marked target audience that continues to add listeners through its new satellites, so there are already more than 30 million users, and that alone in the United States.

The application is completely free and through it you can enjoy the largest audio platform in the world. One of the advantages of SiriusXM is its ability to have signal in remote places, so you have the convenience of having all the stations together on a single platform and no matter where you are. The price of its rate is € 41, which will include more than 100 audio channels where you will find all kinds of music, for decades and even very varied programs. Its content is classified according to the theme they have, there are channels of humor, monologues, children, news and many more, with this application you can listen to anything you want.

One of the star programs of the SiriusXM application is sports. Only with it you have access to the ESPN thematic radio satellite station, as well as other specific ones in which you will have at your disposal all the national leagues of American football, basketball, baseball, boxing, etc.

You will also have at your fingertips all the news, comments and analysis in real time so that you do not miss anything, available 24 hours a day in its main newscasts. Create your own personalized channel lists with which you will quickly find your favorite programs. Download SiriusXM and start discovering new channels by following the recommendations of other users.
