The objective of streaming services is to have in their catalog as many movies and series as possible, standing out from their competition, and all this at the most competitive price. This was until now, when the platform that has revolutionized the world of television on demand, Pluto TV, has finally arrived.

This service offers you a very different alternative, with its more than 200 channels where you will find the best movies and series, and most importantly, totally free and without the need to register. Download Pluto TV for free, you find it available for Android and iOS.

Owned by Viacom since 2019, it has more than 20 million active users, making it the largest free platform, especially in the United States. Little by little it has been expanding all over the world, they do not stop growing, marking its arrival in Spain in October and in Brazil at the end of the year.

The content of the Pluto TV application is characterized by being from well-known channels, adapting to each of the programs that have been most successful in each of the countries from which you are viewing it. You can also find some totally unknown, but they are little jewels of the audiovisual.

It offers 40 exclusive channels that you can watch without prior registration, categorized by themes, such as movies, series, children's programming, reality shows, sports, etc., in which you will have thousands of hours of content. One of the advantages of Pluto TV is that it does not stop growing, each month more and more channels are added to its offer, in which it is expected that by the end of 2020 it will reach number 50 and by the end of 2021 it will achieve the number 100 channels.

The free application stands out for its interface, which always seeks to facilitate the usability of the platform and make it very easy for users to find and play new videos. It will allow you to jump through its content through its categories, in an orderly way, and in a single click. You can also create your own favorites lists so it will be even faster to find everything you want to see without having to search for it.
